The August issue of the Japanese architecture magazine a+u is a special feature dedicated to the work of ingenhoven architects. Accompanied by an essay from Barry Bergdoll (Chief Curator of MoMA New York) and an interview between Christoph Ingenhoven and Martha Thorne (Executive Director of the Pritzker Architecture Prize), the publication presents 22 projects, including Marina One Singapore, Lufthansa HQ Frankfurt, Google HQ Palo Alto, European Investment Bank Luxembourg, 1 Bligh Sydney, Toranomon Tokyo, and International Criminal Court The Hague.
