GREENING THE CITY – How do we have to rebuild our cities?

Date
30.09.2021

On 30 September 2021 from 18:30-19:30, an online discussion accompanying the exhibition "Greening the City" and organised by the Deutsches Architekturmuseum will take place under the motto "GREENING THE CITY – How do we have to rebuild our cities?". It's about concrete projects and the big picture of how cities can escape the so-called "heat island effect". With: Christoph Ingenhoven, ingenhoven architects; Nicole Pfoser, HfWU Nürtingen-Geislingen; Martin Pauli, Arup, moderated by peter cachola schmal, Deutsches Architekturmuseum.
