Graduation speech and lecture at Instituto de Empresa (IE) in Madrid

Date

04.03.2016

Today, Christoph Ingenhoven gave an inspirational speech in front of master graduates of the IE School of Architecture and Design during their graduation ceremony. He gave an insight into his successful career as an architect as well as an entrepreneur and encouraged the graduates to follow their ideas. He also presented some of the latest super projects of ingenhoven architects and talked about the holistic concept of supergreen® later in the afternoon in front of the new intake of students.
